

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The International Tournament Of Champions Heads to Dublin, Ireland in 2027 Prestigious Invitation-Only Championship to Debut at RDS Simmonscourt on May 29, 2027

DUBLIN, IRELAND — The Tournament Of Champions (TTOC) is proud to announce its international debut, bringing one of cheerleading's most exclusive championship event concepts to RDS Simmonscourt in Dublin, Ireland, on Saturday, May 29, 2027.

Produced by Redline Championships in collaboration with Inspire Cheer & Dance Championships, the International Tournament Of Champions will unite elite teams from across Europe and around the world for an unforgettable celebration of athletic excellence, sportsmanship, and international competition.

The International Tournament Of Champions is an invitation-only event created to recognize the very best programs in the sport. Invitations are earned through an industry wide nomination process and then final teams invited will be determined by the TTOC Selection Committee, ensuring that only the most deserving teams have the opportunity to compete for the coveted title of International Tournament Of Champions Champion.

Held in one of Ireland's premier event venues, RDS Simmonscourt provides the perfect setting for a world-class championship experience. Located in the heart of Dublin, the venue has hosted some of Europe's most prestigious sporting and entertainment events, making it an ideal destination for athletes, coaches, families, and fans traveling from across the globe.

"The Tournament Of Champions is about recognizing excellence and creating a truly memorable championship experience," said Kevin Jones, Founder of the International Tournament Of Champions. "Bringing this event to Dublin is an exciting milestone as we continue expanding the championship internationally. We're honored to partner with Inspire Cheer & Dance Championships to create an experience that celebrates the incredible talent, passion, and unity of the global cheerleading community."

Amy White Lambe, Founder of Inspire Cheer & Dance Championships, shared her enthusiasm for the partnership.

"Ireland has experienced tremendous growth in competitive cheerleading over the past several years, and hosting the International Tournament Of Champions is a wonderful opportunity to showcase our athletes while welcoming teams from around the world. Partnering with Redline Championships allows us to create an event that reflects the very best of our sport and provides an unforgettable experience for every athlete, coach, and family who joins us in Dublin."

The event is expected to attract hundreds of athletes representing multiple countries, reinforcing the continued growth of competitive cheerleading throughout Europe while strengthening relationships across the international cheer community.

In addition to elite competition, teams and their families will have the opportunity to experience Dublin's rich history, iconic landmarks, vibrant culture, and renowned hospitality, making the championship as memorable off the competition floor as it is on it.

Additional event information, invitation criteria, registration details, travel packages, hotel accommodations, and spectator information will be announced in the coming months.

About the International Tournament Of Champions

The International Tournament Of Champions (ITOC) is an invitationonly championship that recognizes excellence in competitive cheerleading by bringing together outstanding teams from around the world. Designed to provide a premier international championship experience, the event celebrates athletic achievement, sportsmanship, and the continued growth of the global cheerleading community.

About Redline Championships

Redline Championships is an innovative event producer committed to delivering athlete-focused championship experiences that combine exceptional production, outstanding customer service, and meaningful competition. Through premier events across North America and abroad, Redline Championships continues to elevate the competitive cheerleading experience for athletes, coaches, and families.

About Inspire Cheer & Dance Championships

Inspire Cheer & Dance Championships is Ireland's premier cheerleading and dance event producer, dedicated to growing the sport through professionally produced competitions that inspire athletes, recognize excellence, and build a thriving cheer and dance community throughout Ireland and Europe.

Media Contact

International Tournament Of Champions
Media Relations
Email: info@thetournamentofchampions.com
Website: thetournamentofchampions.com

